Scrofulous Ulcer.
TEN YEARS' STANDING.
ATLANTA, GA., July, 1883.
I have been afflicted with a chronic running scrofulous ulcer of my leg for a number of years which has steadily resisted all treatment until I secured R. B. B. a few bottles of which healed the ulcer and cured me. My brother for ten years had an extensive running ulcer on his leg, which could not be cured, a few bottles of R. B. B. acted like magic—healing the ulcer, and imparting strength to his whole system. I live at Morris' mills, north of this city. A. P. McDONALD.

Sheriff's Land Sale.
By virtue of an execution issued by the Clerk and Master of the Chancery Court at Jonesboro, Tennessee, on the 3rd day of July, 1884, which came in to my hands on the 5th day of July, 1884, and was on the same day by me levied on a certain house and lot of land situated in the County of Washington, and the State of Tennessee, and in the town of Johnson City, between Main and Church streets, and between the lots owned by W. T. Runge and the estate of the late Dr. I. W. Seaborn. Said lot containing one-half acre more or less. I will offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash in hand on the 10th day of November, 1884, at the Court House door in the town of Jonesboro, Tennessee, all the right, title, interest and claim that W. B. C. Smith has in and to said house and lot of land, to satisfy a judgment of two hundred and forty dollars and twelve cents and the interest on the same since the 3rd day of June, 1884, and the costs adjudged against the defendant in this execution, that Curtis Cullen and C. S. Newman recovered against W. B. C. Smith in the Chancery Court at Jonesboro, at its last term, in the cause of Bruff, Faulkner & Co., et al. vs. W. B. C. Smith, et al.
Said sale will be made during the legal hours on said day unless the judgment, interest and costs are sooner paid.
S. H. POWDER, Sheriff Washington Co.
